Loch Awe and Ben Lui. Loch Awe is about 23 miles long, and throughout its entire length does not exceed three-quarters of a mile in width. The shores are wooded and covered with foliage, but of such a winding character they seldom permit of large stretches of water to be seen at once. At its foot, towards the east, is Ben Lui, which rises to a height of 3,708 feet, forming a scene of majestic grandeur.
